POLITICAL PROSPECT.

The Probable Results of Mr. Magee's Victory in Lancaster.

TROUBLE FOR THE QUAY CLANS.

The Prohibition Election is the Cause of Some Anxiety.

CANDIDATES FOR THE SPEAKERSHIP

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1 HARRISBURG, April 29 .- The pronounced triumph of the Magee forces in Lancaster county has set political tongues to wagging, and has given many Quay men a chill. The absence of Senator Delamater and Chairman Andrews when the news came just as the legislative excursionists were preparing to start for New York, disposed some to keep quiet who could say a great many things that would make interesting reading. There is no doubt whatever that a square issue was made between Quay and Magee, and that on that issue and that alone the battle san against the Pittsburg man, and before the primary election ballots were cast the Magee men were making no brags. But they worked hard, and the result is a notice to the National Chairman and his friends hat Mr. McDevitt, who ran against him for State Treasurer, is yet alive: that Tom Cochran has not forgotten his deposition from the chief clerkship of the Sente, and that C. L. Magee was not crushed by the avalanche that was supposed to have fallen on him when Mr. Quny's legislative lieutenants declined to receive his acknowledgement

A GLANCE AHEAD.

The question now is, will this thing be carried into the State Treasurership campaign for the purpose of deleating Mr. Boyer, or is Mr. Magee merely getting ready for the succeeding campaign, when a Legislature and a Governor are to be elected. A great many Democrats think and not a few Republicans fear that all will not be well with the Republican party this fall. Some say that no matter what the result may be on prohibition (and there is a strong though quiet belief in its defeat) the Republican party will suffer.

The defeat of prohibition, it is held, will carry a large number of the extreme tem-perance Republicans into the prohibition party, and some of them are expected to go so far as to cool their wrath in the Demo-oratic camp. A result like the latter, it is anticipated, will also follow the defeat of the liquor interest. There is every indica-tion, however, that the liquor interest will not be defeated if Mr. Cooper can trump the trick with his favorite high license

Then again it is hoped on one hand and feared on the other that the manner in which Mr. Wherry's anti-discrimination which Mr. Wherry's and discrimination bill and his sinking fund reform have been treated will cause a loss of many votes to the Republican party. The Republican party was distinctly pledged to a measure of the former nature, and Hon. Henry Hall, of Mercer, has not convinced even all the Republicans of the House that Mr. Wherry is not at least partly right on the

NOT THEIR PLAN. The Republican leaders do not, however, feel like taking up reforms forced on them by the Democrats. In making a choice be-tween two horns of a dilemma that is not the one they feel like choosing. With the Re-publican party in this position it is not to Mr. Magec's interest to have a candidate in the field this fall. A defeat at that time would be a deathblow to him. He probably sees it in that light, as an astute politician, sees it in that light, as an astute politician, and is merely fighting for position.

Should the party be seriously weakened at the fall election, or should it be defeated, the trouble will all be laid at the door of Mr. Quay and his lieutenants, and Republicans, as a measure of poetic justice, could do no less than turn to the Pittsburg leader to be their Joshua against the Demdoes'nt want to be a Moses, for Moses did not enter the promised land. Mr. Macee would undoubtedly regret a Republican defeat next November, but might be able to reconcile himself to it as a blessing in disguise.

The Quay leaders, however, are not asleep. They see the weak places and they are preparing to strengthen them. The increase of the school appropriation to $2,000,000 proposed by Chairman Andrews is a very politic move, as it will be very populating the parall districts. The Revenue lar in the rural districts. The Revenue commission proposed by Senator Delamater is designed to cause more pleasure in the same and other directions. The commission to select a route for a canal to connect the vaters of the lakes with the Ohio will not give the immediate benefits of an anti-discrimination law, but it is a move that inspires a feeling of hopefulness, and will cause many to keep in line, while the agita-tion is kept up, who might otherwise feel like breaking ranks.

PLENTY OF COMMISSIONS. Then again there is proposed a commission to investigate the iniquitous anthracite coal combinations and report to the next Legislature. These things, with the excep-tion of the first, are merely promises for the future—pledges which are not to be and cannot be redeemed until after a Governor and a new Legislature are elected. By means of them it is expected to hold the discontented in line. Should these pledges not be strong enough to hold them to the Republican candidate for State Treasurer this fall the succeeding group to state Treasurer this fall the succeeding Bepublican State Convention will see a fight for supremacy between Magee and Quay which will be equally as interesting as was the famous Montooth fight, and the struggle at the primaries throughout the State by the rival chieftains to name their own men for the Legislature will be a struggle worth knowing all about.

gle worth knowing all about.

Hon. Henry Hall, of Mercer, may be a strong ally of C. L. Magee in future contests. When the present Legislature assembled Mr. Hall was looked on as "the next Speaker." His popularity has waned somewhat, and for the sole reason that he is not so solid as at the beginning of the session with "the powers that be."

THE JUDGES' SALARY BILL. His last insubordinate action was his very pronounced opposition to the judges' salary increase bill, when he came very near carry-ing the House with him. Just previous to that he had strongly advocated an appro-priation of $5,000 for the purchase of the Smull's handbook copyright from Tom Coohran, Some people say that Mr. Cochran paid less than $500 for it. As Hall stock went down other candidates for the next Speakership loomed up.

Mr. Burdick, of McKean, has been pushed forward by others, and is the most prominent now in the race against Mr. Hall. Mr. Billingsley, of Washington, has a mind to try it if re-elected to the House, and so has Mr. Brooks, of Philadelphia. The Quay leaders are discouraging none of these candidates.

There are some who think Mr. Hall has There are some who think Mr. Hall has sized up the situation and is not averse to helping Mr. Magee at the proper time. At any rate his actions, though undoubtedly shaped by his ideas of right and wrong, are leading him away from the present Republeading him away from the present kepublican management, and away from that leads logically to Magee. Mr. Hall may not really love Mr. Magee more than he does Mr. Quay or Mr. Andrews or Mr. Delamater, but in politics love is not always the ruling passion.

But the situation is yet very much clouded.

Killed by a Falling Wall, ALTOONA, April 29.-The entire west wall of the Mountain City Theater building swayed shortly after noon to day in answer to a terrific gust of wind, and fell into the adjoining alley. John W. Keller, aged 17 years, was caught by the falling bricks and instantly killed. A committee of experts pronounced the walls perfectly safe only a few weeks ago.

A telegram from Uniontown says: Much satisfaction is felt here over the arrest of the alleged McClellanetown outlaws, and the community will rest easier now that their great scourge has been removed. While their greatest escapades were committed in this county it seems nothing but right that the county that had men with nerve enough to arrest the bandits should have the satisfaction and also the reward for convicting them.

The pastors of the New Castle churches hereby express their convictions that the increase of public meetings on the Sabbath beyond the regular established services and the giving of other lectures or entertainments on Wednesday evenings, do greatly retard the interests of religion and weaken the divinely appointed means of grace in family and church life, and do hereby declare their purpose not to take part in such services nor announce them from the pulpit, except when they shall have previously agreed to do so, and do also earnestly request the members of the church to co-operate with us in guarding the Lord's Day against such innovations, and in keeping that day and Wednesday evening secred to the uses to which they are set apart. The Huns had been drinking freely all day, and in the evening a general fight ensued. Some party unknown threw a double bitted ax into the shanty where Sabose was, and it struck him on the head, the keen edge entering the skull to the depth of an inch.

After the assault someone broke into his trunk and took $150 and a bank book. Sabose in a critical condition. The officers are look.

The Alleged McClellandtown Robbers Are Escorted to Jail-General Satisfaction

SOMERSET, April 29 .- The ten persons, seven men and three women, captured on Sunday near Markleysburg, Fayette county, supposed to be a portion of the gang of Mc-Clellandtown robbers and desperadoes, were brought here to-day in charge of Sheriff

On Saturday last ex-Sheriff Kyle, of Meyeradale, organized a posse. The rendezvous of the outlaws was located two miles from Markleysburg and surrouned. On Sunday evening, the party seeing they could not escape, surrendered. They were taken to Confluence, placed on a midnight train and arrived here this morning. The whole town turned out and escorted the prisoners from the station to the jail.

The names of those captured are: Charley Lewis, Jack and Maurice Sullivan, Decatur Tasker. Manna Thomas, Clarence Anderson, Bill Hill and wife, Net Sullivan and Louisa Teats. When Tasker was being handcuffed he said: "I wish I had fought until you had killed me."

An Alterative Medicine, don't forget that everything depends on the kind used. Ask for Ayer's Sarsaparilla and take no other. For over forty years this preparation has had the endorsement of leading physicians and druggists, and it has achieved a success unparalleled in the history of proprietary medicines.

"For a rash, from which I had suffered some months, my father, an M. D., recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It effected a cure. I am still taking this medicine, as I find it to be a most powerful blood-purifier."—J. E. Cocke, Denton, Texas.

"C. H. Hut, Druggist, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have been selling Ayer's Sarsaparilla for many years. It maintains its popularity, while many other preparations, formerly as well known, have long been forgotten." "I have always recommended Ayor's Sarsaparilla as superior to any other preparation for purifying the blood."— G. B. Kuykendall, M. D., Pomeroy, W.T.
